Title: Helapet Award for Independent Study

In line with Helapet's continued commitment to education and the development of its staff and customers, we are delighted to present once again, the Helapet Awards for Independent Study in collaboration with the University of Derby.

The award for Best Independent Study 2009 for aseptic services was presented to Chimene Morgan who is the Chief Technician for CIVAS at the Royal Free Hospital in Hampstead, North London, at a special presentation held at the University of Derby on the 7th February. This was in recognition of her work 'Training programme for the pharmacy technical services unit'

The award for Best Independent Study 2009 for Clinical Pharmacy was awarded to Gillian Wiseman from the North Cheshire Hospitals NHS Trust for her module 5 project on 'Development and implementation of a training procedure for patient counselling on discharge medication'

Many congratulations to Chimene and Gillian who have been studying the University of Derby BTEC professional Diploma whilst working in aseptic service units.
